

Train Accident on Danish Bridge Kills 6

Nyborg, Denmark - On January 2, around 7:35 local time, debris from a freight train stuck a passenger train traveling to Copenhagen via the Great Belt Bridge. Emergency services report 6 dead and 16 injured. A heavy storm is likely to have contributed to the collision. Inclement weather was also responsible for hindering rescue operations.

Read more...